The foot ball season is over and base ball is now the talk. We have materia. In school this year for a first class team and prospects are bright for causing Roswell to laugh the other way this spring.

Secretary W. M. Danburg, of the Guadalupe Oil company, received word from Santa Rosa the fore part of the week that the contract depth of 1,000 feet will soon be reached on the well being sunk on the company's property. He says that the indications are most encouraging and that money has already been put up to sink the well deeper.

The interior of the southern Methodist church is this week undergoing extensive improvements. Preparations are being made for an elaborate Christmas entertainment. The new pastor is expected in a few days.

President T. B. Enoch, of the Mormon Mining & Milling company, returned from the east. He reports that he has been successful in interesting some eastern capital in his enterprises, and that work will shortly be commenced on the Mormon. The Mormon is near the property which Mr. Anderson has recently taken charge of and is now working.

Dr. and Mrs. Yair are back from their trip to Europe.

Mrs. J. C. Casellas and daughter left for El Paso.

The snow which fell was somewhat of a surprise, but it was welcomed as of benefit to ranches about here.

Mrs. S. Brown, of Kibourn, Wis., arrived here on the delayed train on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. O. H. Brown and family.

John R. DeMier returned from a visit to the Santa Rosa oil fields. Mr. DeMier reports that the O. K. Crude Oil company are down over 900 feet, and as soon as they can case off the water, will have oil.

From the Citizen.

Mrs. C. H. Armijo left for El Paso to be absent several weeks on a visit to friends in the metropolis.

Morris Lowenstein, the Yaleta, Texas, merchant, was here last week on a visit to his sons, who are in business here.

G. A. Bennett and Henry Brown, who are doing assessment work in the Bear canyon district, were here this week after supplies.

W. H. Skidmore has the contract for repainting the Rouault two-story brick building. When painted and renovated President Foster of the Agriculture & Mechanic Arts college and family will occupy it.

LORDSBURG.

From the Liberal.

Mrs. W. H. Small and Mrs. H. E. Hoffman went up to Clifton to visit a few days with Mrs. Walter Payne.

This section of the country has been suffering from cold weather for the past week. Sunday morning, a week ago, the mountains in all directions were covered with snow. The cold was intensified by the wind that was continually blowing. Taking it altogether it was very disagreeable to be out of doors.

Ferdinand Nawrath, well known in this section of the country as Dock Nawrath, who had a small bunch of Nawrath, who had a small bunch of on the plain last week by Peter Hall. Appearances indicate he had been trying to rope a steer and his horse had been thrown, falling on him, causing instant death.

For a week or so a man named James Abbott was around town. Where he came from, and why he came here no one knows. Saturday morning he was found dead in the road in front of the Eagle drug merchant company's corral. A careful examination showed he had suffered from a hemorrhage, which had caused his death. As he had no friends nor money he was buried at public expense. He was probably between forty and fifty years

Book Chapman, representing the Singer sewing machine company, was in town, and intended to drive to Silver City Tuesday. When he got up that morning he found his horses had disappeared. He had left them safe in the corral the night before. Whether they had been stolen, or got away he did not know. He got men on the trail in the morning, who found them about ten miles east of Bepar. He left for Silver City Wednesday.

A hobo giving the name of John Casey, swiped a tub of butter from the Roberts & Leathy merchantile company's delivery wagon. Fortunately J. A. Leathy saw the transaction. He captured the butter, and though he had Casey, but found that Casey was more slippery than the butter, as he twisted out of Mr. Leathy's grasp and took to his heels. Constable McGrath took after him, horseback, and rounded him up, brought him before the justice, who sentenced him to the county jail for thirty-five days.

Some boys have been helping themselves to apples from the Roberts & Leathy merchantile company's warehouse. Tuesday J. A. Leathy did a little detective work, and caught a boy in the act of appropriating apples. He thought a little fatherly admonition would be better than having the kid arrested, and so loosened the trousers, found a nice place built by nature for such an operation, and applied the flat of his hand, where it would do the most good. Joe has a broad fatherly hand, and the kid had a good pair of lungs. The combination produced a concert that was greatly enjoyed by the spectators and listeners.

SANTA FE.

From the New Mexican.

A brick sidewalk is to be constructed in front of the Adams property on the south side of Palace avenue.

William Smith, of Lakewood, a suburb of Cleveland, Ohio, who has been spending several weeks in this city, left for his home. During his stay here, Mr. Smith made many friends.

The public school at Picacho has been closed for a week on account of measles among the children. Twenty-seven scholars are confined to their beds.

The sheep camp of J. S. Shipp, who is attending to several herds in this district was stolen out last Friday. This is the second time that Shipp has had his camp robbed in the last two months.

Bird Keith received an ugly gash in the forehead, at the Old Abe mine, the result of a piece of plank falling upon him. He was knocked senseless, but Dr. Paden soon relieved him and found his injuries not at all serious.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cray went to Lincoln and returned via Capitan and Nogal. They have filed application for homestead entry near Torrance. Mr. Cray thinks Torrance is going to be a busy town when the Santa Fe Central is completed.

Chas. Bransford was arraigned before justice court here, charged with carrying and flourishing a deadly weapon. He was bound over in the sum of $500 to await the action of the grand jury and in default of which he was sent to jail.

Mr. Peterson had quite an experience in killing a lion. The lion had been making visits to the pasture and killing young calves so he decided to lay for the beast. He finally caught sight of him just as he was in the act of springing on a calf. He fired and the animal fell, and supposing that he had killed it, he started to approach. When he got up within a few feet of him the lion made fight, and he had to take to a convenient tree where he could reload his gun. He then fired a fatal shot.

GALLUP.

From the Republican.

Miss Gretchen Harris returned this week from a pleasant visit to California.

One of Parker's freighters at Manueto threw a small rock at a balking horse and killed him.

G. S. Saunders, the photographer, who has occupied the Morris building on Second street for the last six weeks, has gone to Prescott, Ariz. He is a good workman.

From a well informed former resident of Gallup we learn that the Gallup public schools rank higher than the California schools except those in the city of San Francisco.

Walter Colenso, who has done some hard rustling for the Gallup base ball club this year, reports $43 cash on hand, the grand stand paid for and no outstanding bills.

The fair and supper given by the Episcopal Guild was well attended. The fair lasted until midnight and a pleasant evening was passed by all. About $80 was realized for the church.

HILLSBORO ITEMS.

Chas. Ross Not Dead—Old Man Found Dead in Road.

From the Advocate.

A brisk snow-storm prevailed here Saturday night.

Mrs. Fred Mister left to visit friends in Arizona and California.

Mrs. John Kasser returned from New York City. Mr. Kasser met her at Rincon.

The Perkins house on Elenora street was sold under mortgage sale. The property was knocked down to Jack Burke for $555.

R. L. McKinney left for Tucson, to join Mrs. Kinney who is there for medical treatment. He expects to return in a week or ten days.

John Baldehmer, who has been suffering from a severe attack of paralysis for some time is now in New York City with his sister, Mrs. Hein, who came for him and took him home with her. His condition is much improved.

Charles Ross, brother of Tom and Jim Ross, arrived here from the Mogollon country. It had been reported here that Charles had been killed, but his arrival here proved the report to be erroneous. He left for his home in Texas.

Last Sunday afternoon a Mexican came to town and reported that he saw a dead man lying near the road on the Rio Animas, a short distance below Oposnegos ranch. He notified the authorities, but his story was so uncertain that no one went out to investigate. Justice of the Peace Warren, of precinct No. sixteen (Paulkner) was notified and an inquest was held. The unfortunate man's name was Perfeto Rubio, and is said to be 101 years old. He probably got caught in the cold storm that prevailed on Saturday and perished from exposure—the jury returning a verdict to that effect.

AZTEC.

From the Index.

Aztec young people are having a gay winter. Entertainments, socials, dances and skating parties go to make up the enjoyment.

Keep your eyes on Aztec. Town property has doubled in price in the past year and is easily sold at the advance. We are not making much noise—just growing.

O. D. Comfort, of Hood, this county, was in town this week. Mr. Comfort has just returned from a year's trip through New Mexico, Arizona, Lower California, Mexico and Texas and says San Juan county beats them all.

Miss Elva Russell, daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. L. Russell, of Durango, was married last week to Albert E. Lund. The bride is well known to the young people here, having visited Miss Perle Pendleton several times the past summer and fall.

At the meeting of Aztec hive No. 3, the following officers were elected: M. L. Prewitt, L. C.; Edith Fields, P. C.; Jennie Baker, L. C.; Agnes Colton, R. K.; Ella Hubbard, F. K.; S. Hildebrand, C. M.; Mable Revel, M. A.; Stella Stogadill, S. A.; Maud Waring, P.; Lula Rathjen, C. G.

Harry E. Simpson, of Scranton, Pa., returned from Old Mexico, and after spending two days in Alamogordo left for New York in President Eddy's private car, Paso del Norte.

Tuesday while J. J. Boone was helping load cattle for O. M. Lee & Co., a vicious steer kicked him on the right leg and broke both bones. Dr. Gilbert set the broken member and he is doing as well as could be expected, but it will necessarily take a long time before he can be out again.

Redwood camp, W. O. W., had an election meeting and the following are the officers: T. H. Claypool, C. C.; L. A. Hodges, adjutant lieutenant; C. W. Hutchinson, banker; W. D. Reading, clerk; Dr. J. V. Cowan, physician; W. E. Carmack, manager; John Shirley, escort; W. G. Queen, sentry; J. E. Moore, watchman. A public installation will come off on the first Tuesday night in January. The camp is about two months old and has ninety-two members.

FARMINGTON.

From the Hustler.

Miss Fay Arrington is home visiting with her parents.

Over fifty cars of apples have been shipped east from this section within the past four months.

Harry E. Myers and wife have returned home from La Jara, Colorado, where Mr. Myers just finished burning a kiln of 350,000 brick.

At a meeting of the town board held last evening, bonds submitted by C. W. Campbell for the completion of the town hall were accepted, several minor bills allowed and a committee appointed to draft a new water ordinance.

H. T. Hubbard has sold his three room brick residence in the Arrington addition to A. J. Lackenby, recently from Steamboat Springs, Colo. The trade was made by Samuel Rugh. Mr. Lackenby has also purchased the tent outfit of James T. Fay, who will shortly leave for Rio Arriba county.

From the Times.

Lon Arrington came in with his cattle, which he will winter here.

Ed Wise and wife were down from Aztec this week, visiting with Mrs. C. C. Pinckney.

C. F. Boettcher, who recently came here from Albuquerque, is arranging to open up a bakery here. He is a son-in-law of Thomas Neville.

C. E. McConnell, president of the Smelter City State bank at Durango, was in town recently to attend the annual meeting of the Independence ditch shareholders, in which he is largely interested. He was accompanied by W. S. Primrose.

Henry Noel returned recently from a trip sixty miles southeast of here, where he went to look after a flock of the Hyde company's sheep. He says there is fine grass in that section and many Indians are moving their stock there.

Wesley Phelps is going to leave for the reservation, out from Pueblo Bonito, where he goes to take charge of a new Indian trading post for Richard Wetherill. His wife will accompany him. He is said to have a good opening for a profitable business and we wish him success.

SANTA FE.

Several Deaths—Fixing Up for Legislature—Horse Race.

From the New Mexican.

The laying of new pavements should be prosecuted vigorously. This applies to the Old Palace as well as to other properties.

Andres Garcia, an old resident of the South Side, died shortly before noon of old age and general debility. He was 66 years old. His funeral will be held at the cathedral Wednesday morning.

A. M. Dettelbach will commence on New Years to number the houses and by February 1 every house within the city limits will have a number. Who says that Santa Fe isn't making progress?

An old man named Madrid, who was a well known figure around the Plaza, died at St. Vincent's hospital last Friday of old age and general debility and was buried Saturday in Cedar Hill cemetery. Charles Wagner was funeral director.

By the time that the legislature meets the old portal on Don Gaspar avenue between Water and San Francisco streets, will be removed. At least so says Alderman J. D. Senn. That will be another eyesore to Santa Fe people out of the way.

There was an example of the strenuous life at Moriarty last night when some of the graders attacked one of the men employed on a neighboring ranch. He was lassoed and dragged around at a lively rate for a short time, but escaped serious injury.

Almost the entire town this afternoon adjourned to the level stretch of road near the government Indian school to witness the race between the horses owned by John Ford and Jose Cortez. The race was for a purse of $100 and was a quarter of a mile. Ford's horse won the race and Hyman Lowitzki was the jockey. A later report says Jose Cortez's horse won.

After the houses are numbered in Santa Fe, and that will be within two months, a city directory is to be compiled and printed.

Delegate B. S. Rodey writes that he is working energetically to secure free delivery of mail and a new postoffice equipment for Santa Fe.

The store of H. C. Kinsell and Milo Hill, at the corner of Water and Bridge streets, has been opened. A bakery is to be added to the business.

The Santa Fe lodge of Elks, last evening, balloted favorably on the applications of Carl H. Metzgar and Edward R. Paul, of the Santa Fe Central railway offices, and of J. W. Kenton.

James Garland, who pleaded guilty to assault to kill at the recent term of court in Taos county, was received at the penitentiary last evening to serve one year.

The funeral services of the late Dr. D. W. Manley were held from the home of A. C. Ireland, on Hillside avenue. Rev. Anthony Fourcheg, vicar general of this diocese, officiated. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery.

Postmaster Walter has received instructions from Washington to charge the uniform rate of $1 for the small lock boxes in the postoffice. Formerly the rates were 50 cents, 75 cents and $1, according to the location. This gave rise to some faultfinding which the department cuts short by establishing a uniform rate.

Alderman A. J. Fischer, chairman of the health committee of the city council, will in a few days receive a modern fumigating apparatus to be used in houses in which there has been contagious disease. He also desires the New Mexican to state that the committee will insist upon the cleaning up of all corrals and back yards.

SILVER CITY.

From the Independent.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell J. Holson are the happy parents of a little daughter, who came to gladden their home in this city.

Born, in this city, Friday, December 5, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page, a daughter. The world looks mighty bright to Mr. Page these days.

Col. J. W. Carter very pleasantly entertained a number of his friends at his beautiful home in the northern part of the city at a smoker last Thursday evening.

John L. Burnside went down to Deming to attend to business matters in that city. He was accompanied by Mrs. Burnside and baby.

Mrs. George D. Jones, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Silver City for the past couple of weeks, left for her home in Los Angeles.

Tuesday W. T. Wells let the contract to W. P. Lewis to put in a water plant at Alameda heights. The contract price is $4,700. There are to be one and a quarter miles of water mains, a ten horse power engine, an air compressor and a tank forty feet high with a capacity of 23,000 gallons. The plant is to be completed and in working order within ninety days.

Monday afternoon the horse of M. H. Crawford became frightened on South Main street, and ran away, wrecking the buggy and throwing out Mr. Crawford's son, who was in the buggy at the time. The boy was thrown into the ditch and the horse fell on top of him. Only for the fact that the boy was thrown into the ditch so that the full weight of the horse did not come on him, he would undoubtedly have been crushed. As it was he was not seriously injured.

From the Register.

Mrs. J. E. Hemmick left for a visit of three months with her mother, Mrs. S. M. Smith, of Fort Worth.

Miss Nettle Nelson, formerly a resident of Roswell, with her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. S. A.
